

STRIMLING FAMILY TREES

Update version November 6, 2016

Dave Honig and numerous other Strimling relatives have helped keep this information up to date over the years.

Two Brothers - Schmuel and Nossan are the earliest relatives recorded to date.

Nossan descendents went to America.

Schmuel descendents went to Sweden

A group of more Distant Strimlings has also been identified including many in South Africa, Mexico and Sweden etc. whose connection is unclear.

We visited some of the Strimling relatives in South Africa several years ago. They have the same family lore as do other Strimling branches, which is that all Strimlings in the world are related.

NOTE:

This early Labe Levitas Strimling translation is also found in the, "Strimling Origins and History", section. Labe was the only child of Nossan and his first wife.

There are not very many of us who had ancestors so thoughtful and concerned about family that they themselves recorded the family history. The Strimling family is one of the fortunate few. In 1903, Labe Levitas Strimling wrote on the fly leaf of a Book of Job the following, translated from the Yiddish by Rabbi Noah Golinkin:

Description of my life:

My name is Labe Levitas..

1842 I was born ..

1843 My wife was born, .. Roshdisht (?) ..., the mother of the children.

1847 We started going to the cheder (Hebrew School)

1858 I finished cheder

1858 I was traveling with merchandise

1860 My mother died

1864 I got married in Shavel

1866 Manne was born

1868 Chanke was born

1870 Shamke was born

1872 Avramke was born

1874 Moishe was born

1879 My father died

1879 Velvke was born in Konotop

1880 Ganeshke was born in Konotop

1886 Chaike was born

	1883 I traveled from Konotop to ... 1887 Elke was born 1883/84/85 (?) Avramke left for ... 1888 Chanke (got married ?) in Konotop 1890 Moishe left for America (Added by Louis Strimling in 1948 Moishe died, possibly in 1946) 1890 ...left for America 1892 Chanke with Shenken (Joshua) moved to ... 1882 I had “zadiska” - Russian word meaning some difficulty in breathing, asthma 1887 My wife .. also had rheumatism 1898 Mishke (Moishe) went to 1899 Velvke went to (Shavel?) 1874 I acquired the ...  - d. Tove Kattstrom b. 1990
 - 3. Lena Strimling b. 1945 divorced from Borenstein
 - a. Henny Borenstein. b. 1975

1. The family probably came to Sweden in 1905. Mauritz and Henny were born prior to the arrival.
2. Ragnhild Tarschis had some correspondence with relatives in USA
3. Elisie Werbelowski married Bjorn Dvorski. They settled in Israel in 1949 or 1950. Bjorn Dvorski worked for the Histadrut.
5. Signe Schwartzberg, her mother's maiden name Gamson, lived in Lund, where many of the Jews from Poland and Lithuania settled.
6. Siv carries the name Sore Freide.
7. Lena carries the name Liebe Taube.
8. I carry the name Chaim Baruch
9. I've been married twice. That is the reason for the different surnames.
10. Lena writes that her father David Strimling is mentioned in the book "Who's Who in World Jewry".

Distant Strimlings who are also from Shavol and neaby Shtetls.

Strimlings who are of unknown connection are listed below. The connections between families are not verified, but have been sent by different members of the Strimling family. It is obvious that we are missing the link between Nossan, Shmuel and other siblings from whom some of these other branches have descended. Somehow these next two branches are related.

1. Maryem (Miriam) (Both Feivel and Zelda born in Shavol)

B. Masha Edith Strimling b. 1895 m. Samuel Haiman Capcan

1. grandmother of Larry Rubin

SOUTH AFRICAN BRANCH Excerpt from a letter from Larry Rubin: He understands that there were two Strimling families in Shavel. Those who were butchers and those who were farmers. He believes he is descended from the farmers, since Masha (his grandmother?) always spoke of going to live in the country on the dairy farms where she learned to make cream cheese homemade style. She also said that her family were millers. Of course the family lore is that Strimling is the name of a little fish found in the Baltic Sea and eaten like Dutch herring fresh with onions. His great grandfather came to South Africa in 1886 and lived in Oudshoorn, which he believes is ostrich farming country. Masha was born in Shavel with two sisters: Annie and Becky. They and their mother, Leah Rachel Smith from Weksna (a small rural shtetl near Shavel, came to South Africa when Chaim Lipper returned to Shavel to fetch his family. Apparently not all the children came and he left Faivel Strimling in Shavel. Feivel was known to the family as Faiver which was perhaps a spelling mistake or perhaps a mistake in pronunciation. An interesting side note is that also traveling with them from Lithuania was a nurse who was called Nana and lived with the family in Knysna until she died.
